A Record Year

As the ticker tape at the top of this page indicates, the American League in 1982 set an all-time sports league attendance record of 23,080,449, despite more than 40 weather-related postponements. As the Commodity Quotations, Inc. "Sportsticker" (the official baseball score service) announced last fall, this attendance mark set an all-time sports record.

Less than a year after the 50-day strike, Baseball bounded back to assume its place as America's favorite sport as record numbers of fans flocked to major and minor league parks, college stadia and the sandlots to watch America's game. Baseball Fever was back. (As we have in recent years, herewith are a few excerpted quotes from journalists across the country on the game of Baseball.

"Baseball is king again. But, really, was there ever any doubt? . . . asked BOB VERDI in the Chicago Tribune's "Wake of the News". He continued" . . . All the sports fan need remember is the summer of '82,when baseball became king again, proving that it not only is the best game of all, but also is the most indestructible. One year after the strike that was supposed to be a death knell, baseball outdid itself . . . More fans paid to watch the game than ever before in the summer of'82 . . . "Verdi wrote.

And Michael Bauman, columnist for the Milwaukee Journal wrote last October 30th on a post-season visit to the Brewers' County Stadium, reminiscing about many happy memories in the Milwaukee ball park: " . . . And you could see some things that other people would not see the same way, but would feel the same way about. I could see a 5-year-old kid in the left-field bleachers in 1953, with his dad, watching his first major league game, the Milwaukee Braves against the old Brooklyn Dodgers. I could see that same 5-year-old kid, a lot of years later, taking his own 5-year-old son to see his first major league game, the Milwaukee Brewers against the Minnesota Twins.

"Let me tell you, there aren't words in these strange machines we use now instead of typewriters to describe just how warm those memories made this late October day. Baseball. The only problem with it is that April is a long way off."

* * * * *

And then there is Charles Kuralt, the CBS newscaster and interpreter of the American scene who reminisced about the game to Baseball management at the recent annual meetings in Hawaii. At a CBS dinner in honor of the 26 clubs, Mr. Kuralt paid tribute not only to the on-field heroes of the game, but to the writers who have produced some of the greatest prose on the subject of Baseball . . . .

"We musn't ever underestimate the power of the word on the page to convey the wonder and mystery of baseball." . . . and " . . . How lucky I was and all of us are, how lucky the game is, that so many wonderful writers have turned their skill to this subject . . . . and even down to our own time that the best writing about anything is writing about baseball."

And, after citing some notable examples of baseball literature, Mr. Kuralt said:

"I hope that this great game which is in your hands lives on always to inspire such caring and by the way, such writing."

BBWAA . . . 75 Years of Service

The 1983 major league Baseball season marks the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Baseball Writers Association of America . . . appropriately the DIAMOND ANNIVERSARY of the BBWAA.

Founded just before the final game of the 1908 World Series, a group of disgruntled writers organized to seek better working conditions at World Series games. The date of organization was October 14, 1908. The BBWAA was formed that winter in New York.

Membership dues that first year were $1.00; now they are $30.00, including local chapter dues. Originally, the Turf Writers Association offered organizational assistance. Since then the BBWAA has helped other press organizations get organized. There were 11 chapters when the association was founded. Today there are chapters in each major league area, plus Washington.

The first president was Joseph Jackson of Detroit and Washington. He served for a decade, followed by Fred Lieb of New York and distinguished sports journalists across the country. In 1931, Bill Slocum suggested that elections for office be on an annual basis. The current national chairman is Randy Galloway of the Dallas Morning News. Jack Lang of the New York Daily News is the long time secretary-treasurer of the organization and Red Foley of New York is the assistant secretary.

The BBWAA took over the voting for the Most Valuable Player Awards in 1931 and the Cy Young pitching awards in 1956. The Rookie-of-the-Year was instituted in 1947. The BBWAA continues to be involved in press box seating for the World Series and League Championship Series.

The American League salutes the Baseball Writers Association of America and dedicates this 1983 Red Book to all the members of this great organization.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

TRADING--WAIVER PERIODS

Within Own League--No waivers necessary from last day of season to midnight, June 15. Waivers are necessary from midnight, June 15 (PDT) to final day of season.

Inter-League--Waivers are necessary at all times except during the two inter-league trading periods. (The first inter-league trading period allows for the assignment of player contracts from one major league to another without waivers in the period starting at 12:01 Pacific Time, February 15th, and ending on April 1st (5:00 P.M. - PST). The second inter-league trading period comes five days after the close of the World Series and continues until 5:00 P.M. local city time in the city in which the meetings are being held, prior to the last scheduled day of the Annual Meetings.

National Association--Waivers are required at all times for assignment to National Association, except for optional assignments within three years of date player first reported to the major leagues.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule."

(a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as is the practice of the home team.
2. In All Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both Leagues so agree.
3. In World Series play the rule will be used every other year. It will be used in all even numbered years.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup cards presented to the Umpire-in-Chief.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any subsitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A runner may be substituted for the Designated Hitter and the runner assumes the role of Designated Hitter.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:
  (1) A curfew imposed by law;
  (2) A time limit permissible under league rules;
  (3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.);
  (4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on.
  (5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:
    (i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.
    (ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:
NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:
  (1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds;
  or
  (2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or
  (3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible;
    (i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or
    (ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.
  (4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension.
No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup.
A player who was not with club when the game was suspended may be used as a subsitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

Amend 4.11(d)to read as follows:

(d) A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:
  (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.
  (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

INTENTIONALLY PITCH AT THE BATTER

Rule 8.02(d)

If, in the umpire's judgment, such a violation occurs, the umpire shall warn the pitcher and his manager that another such pitch will earn immediate expulsion of the pitcher. At the same time the umpire shall warn the opposing manager that such an infraction by his pitcher shall result in that pitcher's expulsion.

If, in the umpire's judgement, there is another such pitch during the game by any pitcher, the umpire shall eject the pitcher from the game.

If, in the umpire's judgment, circumstances warrant, one or both teams may be officially "warned" prior to the game or an actual violation during the game in progress.

(League Presidents may take additional action under authority provided in Rule 9.05.)

PLAYER LIMITS--ROOKIE QUALIFICATION

PLAYER LIMITS: The active player limit from opening day through August 31 is 25 players, and 40 players from September 1 through the end of the season. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the Championship Season shall be 24.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service).

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)

Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions.

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and

(3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.

(b) He enters the game with the potential tieing run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tieing run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsman he faces); or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1:00 AM, local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1:00 AM, local time, it can be completed. Curfews shall be waived for the final game between two teams in each of the cities...In Baltimore, play is to end at 11:59 PM on Saturday nights only, regardless of the situation. On all other nights, Baltimore observes the American League curfew.

GAME WINNING RBI

"GAME WINNING RBI" is the run batted in that gives a club a lead it never relinguishes.(NOTE: There does not have to be a game-winning RBI in every game and all game-winning RBIs must conform to Rule 10.04.)

PLAYERS TO WEAR EAR FLAPS

All National Association players will wear double ear flaps. Major League players are urged to wear the double ear flap protection, but are obliged only to wear the single ear flap (except all players not wearing ear flaps in 1982 are "grandfathered" in 1983 and will not have to wear any flap.).

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JOHN FRANCIS MC NAMARA—Born June 4, 1932, Sacramento, CA; Residence: Cincinnati, OH . . . Married (Kathleen Fordon), four children . . . Height: five feet, ten inches; Weight: 175 pounds . . . Named to succeed Gene Mauch on November 2, 1982.

A wealth of experience, an abundance of patience and a genuine concern for people were the prerequisites which made John McNamara one of the most sought after managers during the past winter. When the Angels named McNamara as the club's 10th manager it marked a homecoming of sorts for the personable native Californian. He served as a coach for the Angels in 1978 and managed for Executive Vice-President E.J. (Buzzie) Bavasi while the latter was President of the San Diego Padres. McNamara worked with a quintet of players in 1978 still with the Angels—Don Aase, Brian Downing, Bobby Grich, Ron Jackson and Bobby Clark. During his tenure as a minor league pilot, one of his prize pupils was Reggie Jackson. McNamara, a former minor league catcher (with the exception of 14 games spread over a four-year span as a pitcher) launched his managerial career at age 26. He worked nine seasons as a minor league skipper including pennant winning stops with Southern League entries Mobile and Birmingham before joining Oakland as a coach in 1968. He has remained in the majors as either a manager (Oakland, 1969-70, San Diego, 1974-77 and Cincinnati, 1979-82) or a coach (Oakland, 1968-69, San Francisco, 1971-73 and California, 1978) ever since.

After three-and-a-half seasons as White Sox manager 38-year-old Tony La Russa becomes the senior skipper in the A.L. West. Tony led the White Sox to an 87-75 record and a third place finish in the A.L. West in 1982. It was the best Sox finish in five years and second best in 11. Named to manage the White Sox on August 2, 1979 after piloting AAA farm Club Iowa to 54-48 record. In 1981, Tony led team to a 54-52 record. Chicago has been over .500 each of the last two seasons and has a combined 141-127 record under LaRussa. This past season, the White Sox broke out fast, winning their first eight games and had the best record in baseball at 28-14 on May 26th. Especially effective at Comiskey Park, they were 49-31 at home and 49-35 against the Eastern Division. Overall, La Russa heads into the 1983 campaign with a 238-244 record. An attorney by training, Tony gained his first managerial experience with the Sox' AA Knoxville club in 1978, winning first half honors in the Southern League and being promoted to White Sox coach on July 3rd. He was a star athlete at Tampa's Jefferson High and first signed with Kansas City, reaching the majors in 1963. He also played with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

GEORGE LEE (Sparky) ANDERSON - Born February 22, 1934, Bridgewater SD; Residence: Thousand Oaks, CA...Married (Carol), three children...Height: five feet nine inches; Weight: 170 pounds...Became 28th manager of the Tigers replacing Les Moss during the 1979 season.

At the start of the 1983 season, Sparky Anderson finds himself in a position he is comfortable with—first in line. He has the highest winning percentage among current major league managers. Anderson's 13-year record of 1,146 wins and 842 losses (.576) is unsurpassed by active managers and ranks 8th in ML history for those with at least 10 years experience. His victory total is third on the list among current managers. Only Boston's Ralph Houk and San Diego's Dick Williams can claim more wins than the popular Tiger field leader. Anderson joined the Tigers on June 14, 1979 with a contract that runs through 1984. Before joining the Tigers, the two-time National League Manager of the Year directed the Cincinnati Reds to an 863-586 mark between 1970 and 1978. Under the leadership of Anderson, the Reds won two world championships, four National League pennants and five West Division titles from 1970 through 1978. During that period, the Reds finished first or second each year except 1971 when they finished fourth. Born Feb. 22, 1934 in Bridgewater, SD, but raised in California, Anderson played in the minor leagues as an infielder for six years before playing for the Philadelphia Phillies in 1959. That was his only season in the major leagues as a player. In 152 games, he batted .218 with no home runs and 34 runs batted in. Anderson then returned to the minor leagues and played four more seasons with Toronto in the International League before taking over as manager at Toronto in 1964. He then managed in the minor leagues four more years before becoming a coach for the San Diego Padres in 1969. He was added to the California Angels' coaching staff that October—but within 24 hours was named manager of the Cincinnati Reds on Oct. 9, 1969. In Anderson's first year as a major league manager, the 1970 Reds won 102 games before sweeping Pittsburgh in three games in the playoffs and then losing the World Series to Baltimore. The 1972 Reds won another National League pennant before losing to Oakland in the World Series. In 1973, the Reds won the National League West Division, but bowed to the New York Mets in the playoffs. The Anderson-led Reds made the most of their next two trips to the World Series by winning back-to-back championships in 1975 and 1976. The Reds defeated the Red Sox in seven games in 1975 in a memorable struggle. They came back in 1976 to sweep the New York Yankees in four games. Anderson was named National League Manager of the Year in 1972 and 1975. He credits the late Charlie Dressen, former Tiger manager, for having the most influence on his desire to become a manager.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

RICHARD DALTON HOWSER—Born May 14, 1936, Miami, FL . . . Residence: Tallahassee, FL . . . Married (Nancy), two children . . . Height: five feet, nine inches; Weight: 155 pounds . . . Named Royals manager August 31, 1981.

He has compiled a solid 213-144 record in two-plus seasons as a major league manager for a .597 winning percentage. The '82 Royals posted a 90-72 record and finished second in the A.L. West despite a rash of injuries. Howser was forced to manipulate his pitching staff and lineup virtually every game as his "starting lineup" was available for only 43 of the 162 games and his starters missed a total of 36 scheduled starts. Under his guidance the '82 Royals led the major league's with a .285 batting average and led the American League in hits, doubles and triples. He reversed the club's fortunes after becoming Royals' manager late in the '81 season and sparked the team to a 20-13 record and second-half championship. KC was playing at a pace 10 games under .500 (30-40) prior to his appointment. He managed the 1980 New York Yankees to the best record in baseball with a 103-59 (.635) slate and the Eaastern Division Championship. Dick became only the 4th manager in history to win 100 or more games as a first year manager (Ralph Houk won 109 in '61, Sparky Anderson won 102 in '70 and Mickey Cochrane won 101 in '34). Howser is a veteran of 24 years in professional baseball, including eight years as a major league player, ten years as a coach and two years as a manager. Howser was the Yankees' third base coach for ten years (1969-78) succeeding Frank Crosetti. Dick began his professional career in 1958 following his collegiate playing days at Florida State. He was signed by the Kansas City Athletics. Dick was named The Sporting News American League Rookie-of-the-Year in 1961. During his rookie campaign, he was also selected for the A.L. All-Star squad. With the Indians in 1964 he tied the A.L. record for most games played by a shortstop (162) and tied for the league lead with six sacrifice hits. He complied a .248 lifetime major league batting average in 789 games. Howser coached FSU's baseball team in 1979 leading the Seminoles to a 43-16 record and to the NCAA Eastern Regionals in his first year as a collegiate coach. He holds the unusual distinction of having been honored as Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1958) and the Professional Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1961).

HARVEY EDWARD KUENN—Born: December 4, 1930, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Residence: West Allis, Wisconsin and Sun City, Arizona; Married (Audrey), two children; Height: six foot two inches; Weight: 180 . . . Named the Brewers sixth manager on June 2, 1982, succeeding Bob (Buck) Rodgers.

Led the Brewers to the American League Pennant and a berth in the 79th World Series against the National League Champion St. Louis Cardinals. Named the American League "Manager of the Year" by AP and UPI. In the American League Championship Series against California, Milwaukee became the first club to ever rally from an 0-2 deficit and capture the pennant. Under Kuenn, the Brewers posted a 72-43 mark, a .626 winning percentage and Milwaukee finished the season with the best record in the major leagues at 95-67 (.586). Had been the only batting coach the Brewers have had, spending 11 seasons at that position. His only other managerial experience came in 1975 when he skippered Mayaquez in the Puerto Rican League and earned "Manager of the Year" honors. Played with five clubs in his 15 year career. Broke in with Detroit in 1952 and spent seven seasons as the Tigers shortstop. Traded to Cleveland in 1960 and closed out his career in the National League with San Francisco, Chicago and Philadelphia, retiring in 1966. Named the A.L. Rookie of the Year in 1953 by The Sporting News and BBWAA. Holder of several records for a rookie. Topped the A.L. in 1959 with a .353 batting average. Led the league in hits four seasons and in doubles three seasons. Seven-time All-Star, retired with a career average of .303. Owner of an establishment in West Allis called Cesar's. MANAGER'S SKETCH

STEPHEN BOROS JR. (Steve)—Born September 3, 1936 in Flint, Mich. Resides in Sarasota, FL . . . Married (Sharla), 2 children (Sasha Ayn and Stephen), Height: six feet; Weight: 185 pounds. Named A's manager on November 17, 1982 replacing Billy Martin.

Steve joins the A's as their manager, after serving as the first base coach for the Montreal Expos the past two seasons. After retiring from active play with AAA Omaha in 1969, Steve accepted a managerial post within the Kansas City System at Waterloo (A). His 1972 Waterloo club finished 72-56 overall, a .576 winning pct, and their 2nd place finish earned Steve the Royals Manager of the Year award in the KC farm system. He managed at San Jose (A) in 1973 and 1974. His '74 club posted an 81-59 record, winning the pennant in the 2nd half of the California League. They also set a professional baseball modern day record by stealing 372 bases. Boros was promoted to the Royals third base coaching box in 1975, and he moved to the first base box for Whitey Herzog in 1976. He remained there until 1979 and was noted for helping Kansas City develop an agressive base-running style. Steve moved to the Montreal organization in 1980, managing at Calgary. In 1981 he was back in the major leagues as the Expos first base coach. Primarily a third baseman during his 13 year pro career. Steve played all or parts of 7 major league seasons with Detroit, Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati. His best season was 1961 when he hit .270 with 62 RBI's in 116 games at Detroit. He played in 50 consecutive errorless games at third base in 1964 with the Reds. In 1960 he led the American Association in runs and total bases, and was MVP and All Star third baseman at Denver. A graduate of Flint Northern HS in 1954, Steve played basketball, football and baseball before entering the U. of Michigan, where he played baseball and earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Literature.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

RENE GEORGE LACHEMANN (pronounced ruh-NAY LATCH-men)—Born May 4, 1945 in Los Angeles, CA; Resides in Mesa, AZ . . . Married (Lori), 2 children . . . Height: six feet; Weight 200 pounds . . . Became manager of the Mariners on May 6, 1981 replacing Maury Wills.

Since "Lach" took over the Seattle helm the Mariners have posted a 114-133 record. The 1982 season marked his first complete season as a major league manager and his club's fourth place finish in the A.L. West was the best in the M's 6-year history. "Lach" joined the Mariner organization in 1978 and managed its first Triple-A club (San Jose, Pacific Coast League). He remained in the same capacity when the M's switched their Triple-A operations to Spokane in 1979. In three seasons at Spokane, he compiled a 177-215 mark (.452 winning percentage). During the winter months of his minor league tenure, Rene continued to refine his managerial skills in the Latin American Leagues. His five years as a winterball manager were highlighted by being named manager of the year in 1976, when his Puerto Rico team captured the Caribbean Series crown. As a player, "Lach" played 9 years within the Kansas City (Oakland) Athletics' organization. Following his playing days, the former catcher turned to managing in the A's farm system and landed his first job at the Single-A level (Burlington, Midwest League). After two seasons at Burlington, he moved to Modesto of the California League (1975) and then on to Chattanooga (Double-A, Southern League--1976) before joining the Mariner organization. His appointment on May 6, 1981 made him only the third manager in the club's 6-year history.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ROBERT JOE (Bobby) COX—Born May 21, 1941, Tulsa, OK; Residence: Marietta, GA . . . Married (Pamela), three children . . . Height: Six feet; Weight: 185 pounds . . . Third manager of the Blue Jays; appointed October 15, 1981.

Bobby starts his second year at the helm of the Blue Jays after guiding them to their best finish since they came into the league in 1977 (78-84). An avid suporter of the platoon system, the former infielder guided the Blue Jays to a sixth place finish (tied with Cleveland) marking the first time that the Blue Jays had not finished in seventh place. Prior to signing with the Blue Jays he managed the Atlanta Braves of the National League for four seasons following a successful minor league career in the New York Yankee system. Cox compiled a 266-323 record in his four seasons at Atlanta, finishing the 1980 campaign with a fourth place, 81-80 slate. He received numerous votes for NL Manager of the Year honors as the Braves were widely acclaimed as the most improved team in the NL that season. Only Luman Harris (five years) managed the Braves longer than Cox. Originally signed as an infielder by the Los Angeles Dodgers, Cox started his 10-year playing career in 1960. He was dealt to Atlanta in a minor league trade in 1966 and following the 1967 season, he was traded again, to the New York Yankees. He became the Yankees starting third baseman in 1968, batting .229 but lost his job to his roommate, Bobby Murcer, who opened the 1969 season. Cox hit .215 in 1969 for a two-season .225 lifetime average in the Majors. He retired due to bad knees following the 1970 season, but remained in the Yankees' organization as manager of their Fort Lauderdale Class A farm team. He never finished lower than fourth in his six years as a manager in the Yankee system, winning his first pennant and championship with West Haven in the Eastern League (Class AA) in 1972. In the next four seasons, all at Syracuse on the Triple A level, he finished second twice and third twice and won the International League Championship's Governors Cup in 1976. In 1977, he was a first base coach with the Yankees.

BOSTON RED SOX

MARTY BARRETT (infielder)...Hit .300 in 131 games to lead Pawtucket hitters in '82. Led club with 27 doubles and 73 walks and was second with 28 stolen bases. Spent September with Red Sox and was in 8 games at second base.

MIKE BROWN (righthanded pitcher)...Sidelined part of 1982 with an arm injury but came back to finish 9-6, 2.45 with 113 strikeouts in 110 innings. Was with the Red Sox in September and got his first big league win Oct. 3 in relief in Yankee Stadium.

DENNIS BOYD (righthanded pitcher)...Hard-throwing righty led the Eastern League (AA) in innings 205, and strikeouts 191, while being named to the All Star team. Had a 14-8, 2.81 record and was with the Red Sox during September.

CHICAGO WHITE SOX

GREG WALKER (First Baseman)...Although he has played in the shadow of slugger Ron Kittle the past two seasons, Walker promises to be a slugger of some merit himself. He slammed 22 homers with 86 RBI in the Eastern League in 1981, leading the league with 117 runs scored and 163 hits and 33 doubles, while batting .321. He appeared off to the same kind of a season in 1982, when he suffered a broken wrist in a tag play at first base two weeks into the season. Coming back late in the season, he appeared in only 35 games for the Edmonton (Can.) Trappers of the Pacific Coast League, but still managed to bat .350. He was called-up to the White Sox late in the 1982 season and batted .412 in 11 games, belting two homers and driving-in 7 runs. One of his homers was an upper deck shot in Minnesota's Metrodome Oct. 1.

RON KITTLE (Outfielder)...Named Minor League ''Player-of-the-Year'' in 1982, Kittle led all pro baseball with 50 home runs and 144 RBI, and finished fourth in the Pacific Coast League batting race with a .345 average. He was also named MVP of the P.C.L., leading the league in runs scored (121), total bases (355), slugging percentage (.752), and in hit-by-pitch (10). Kittle slammed 40 homers and drove-in 102 RBI for the Sox AA club at Glens Falls, NY, in 1981 to amass two-season totals of 90 homers and 246 RBI, with a combined two-season batting average of .336. Called-up for his first look at the majors in September of 1982, Kittle hit his first big league homer Oct. 2nd off Frank Viola at Minnesota.

JIM SIWY (Right-handed pitcher)...In only his second season in pro ball, Siwy made his major league debut in 1982 with the White Sox. He made only two appearances with the Sox, one start and one relief appearance, pitching just seven innings. Siwy spent the majority of the '82 season with the Edmonton (Can.) Trappers of the AAA Pacific Coast League, finishing 2nd on the Trappers staff with 12 wins. In 25 starts and one relief stint, Siway pitched a total of 172 innings, with a 4.04 ERA. In 1981, his first year in pro ball, he owned a combined 16-4 record at the A and AA levels.

CALIFORNIA ANGELS

STEVE BROWN (Righthanded Pitcher)...Appears on roster for third consecutive year. The 6-5 righthander sported a 14-11 log with a 3.88 ERA and led the PCL with 12 complete games for Spokane. It marked the second time he has led a league in that category, finishing with 16 route going performances for El Paso (Texas League) in 1980. Has registered victories in double figures in each of his last three years.

STEVE LUBRATICH (Second baseman-third baseman)...Enjoyed the finest year of his career last season at Spokane before sustaining a broken left arm. At the time was hitting .338 in 132 games. Despite the injury he led the PCL with 181 hits and 43 doubles. Played briefly with the Angels in '81, appearing in seven games (.143) after hitting .298 for the Salt Lake City club that year.

DARYL SCONIERS (Lefthanded hitting first baseman)...Is regarded as one of the top prospects in the organization. He led the Texas League in hitting with a .370 mark in 1980. A .354 average at Salt Lake City the following season earned him a berth with the Angels where he hit .269 in 15 games. Last season produced a .329 mark at Spokane. His pinch single against Kansas City's Dan Quisenberry gave California a pivotal 2-1 triumph over the Royals last Sept. 21.

CLEVELAND INDIANS

JAY BALLER (Pitcher)...The 6-6 righthanded fireballer fanned 155 batters in 151 innings last season enroute to the AA Eastern League ERA title with a 2.68 mark.

JULIO FRANCO

JULIO FRANCO (Shortstop)...An all-round performer who has averaged a .315 BA, 11 HRs, 63 RBIs, and 26 steals in last five seasons of minor league ball...The speedy shortstop clubbed 21 homers and stole 33 bases at AAA Oklahoma City in 1982......Has all the tools.

DETROIT TIGERS

MIKE LAGA (Infielder)...Record-setting home run hitter in the Tigers farm system...His 34 homers at Evansville in 1982 is the highest figure in club history...Also hit 31 home runs at Birmingham in 1981...Contract was purchased and reported to the Tigers on September 1, 1982...Laga made his major league debut that night vs. California...More than half of his hits for the Tigers (12 of 23) went for extra-bases including a home run off the third deck at Tiger Stadium against Baltimore's Jim Palmer, September 29...Hit three home runs in a game at Evansville vs. Iowa on June 23.

BARBARO GARBEY (Outfielder)...Was a star player in Cuba before coming to the United States...Played on the Southern League All-Star team in 1982...Finished season with a .298 batting average and 99 RBI at Birmingham.

KANSAS CITY ROYALS

BOB TUFTS (Lefthanded pitcher)...Obtained by the Royals in March of 1982 with Vida Blue from the San Francisco Giants. Has turned in impressive seasons the past two years at the triple A level. He was 10-6 with 12 saves and a 1.60 ERA allowing but 74 hits in 95.1 innings at Omaha in 1982 where he was selected as the Rolaids Fireman-of-the-Year in the American Association and named to the Topps AAA All-Star team as the lefthanded pitcher. He was 9-2 with eight saves and a 1.70 ERA at Phoenix in 1981.

BUDDY BIANCALANA (Infielder)...Was the Royals number one draft pick in June of 1978. The slick fielding infielder has played primarily at shortstop in his minor league career but can also play second base. He has been slowed by injuries much of his minor league career while also learning to switch hit, but bounced back to enjoy his top year in 1982 at Omaha. He hit a career high .251.

RANDY READY (Infielder)...Was named the Texas League Topps ''Player of the Month'' in May and June. Led the Texas League with a .375 average, 122 runs, 178 hits and 281 total bases. He also clubbed 20 homers and drove in 99 runs in 132 games. In three seasons in the Brewer farm system, Ready has a .349 average.

DION JAMES (Outfielder)...Considered the best prospect in the Brewer minor league system, James batted .322 with 9 homers and 72 RBI at El Paso in 1982. In 106 games, he scored 103 runs. In three Minor League seasons, he has a .310 average.

NEW YORK YANKEES

OTIS NIXON (Infielder)...Outstanding offensive threat who also came close to leading 2 leagues in stolen bases last season. Switch hitter who puts ball in play and pressures defense. Excellent hands and excellent defensive potential. Has stolen 251 bases in 4 Minor League seasons.

DON MATTINGLY (Outfielder)...Outstanding pure hitter with alley power. Has .332 career batting average in 4 Minor League seasons. Can play outfield and first base with equal ability.

Garnering 24 of the 28 BBWAA votes for first place, Cal Ripken, Jr. of the Baltimore Orioles edged out Minnesota's Kent Hrbek in a tight race for American League "Rookie of the Year" honors. Hrbek received the other four first place votes, plus 23 for second and one for third. The Oriole rookie slugger's four other votes were for second place. No other player received any first place consideration. Wade Boggs of Boston was a distant third.

Ripken, son of the Oriole's third base coach, started the season at third base, but moved to short in mid-season when Manager Earl Weaver found a need at short. He fielded .973 at third, and one point less at short while batting .264 with 32 doubles, 28 homers and 93 RBI.

Hrbek hit .301 for the Twins with 21 doubles, 23 home runs and 92 runs batted in, and was the Minnesota representative on the 1982 All-Star squad. Boggs hit .349 in limited service with Boston. Rookie Ed Vande Berg of the Seattle Mariners led the league in games pitched with 78 and posted a 9-4 record with five saves.

Ripken was the fifth Oriole to win Rookie honors, following Eddie Murray in 1977, Al Bumbry in 1973, Curt Blefary in 1965 and Ron Hansen in 1960.

Rickey Henderson, Baseball's new all-time base-stealing champion, received the Joe Cronin Award from the American League Board Chairman at pre-game ceremonies at the Oakland Coliseum prior to a late-season game in Oakland last September. The Oakland A's fleet outfield star stole 130 bases for the Athletics last season, easily topping Lou Brock's record of 118, the previous record for stolen bases since 1900.

A'S RICKEY HENDERSON WINS "JOE CRONIN AWARD" FOR DISTINGUISHED ACHIEVEMENT

The Oakland Athletics' Rickey Henderson joined a prestigious list of baseball stars when he was named winner of the Joe Cronin Award for "distinguished achievement" last season. His record-breaking 130 stolen bases was the achievement.

The award is presented annually by the American League in honor of the Hall of Fame shortstop, manager, general manager and former league president who now serves as Chairman of the American League's Board of Directors. Henderson's award was the tenth since the establishment of the trophy.

FOR PREVIOUS MVP, CY YOUNG, JOE CRONIN AND ROOKIE AWARD WINNERS, SEE PAGE 61

ROBIN YOUNT NEARLY UNANIMOUS CHOICE AS AMERICAN LEAGUE'S MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

Gaining 27 out of a possible 28 first place votes, Robin Yount of the American League champion Milwaukee Brewers easily won Most Valuable Player honors last season. Reggie Jackson of the California Angels received the other first place ballot as two members of the BBWAA in each league city voted. Runnerup in the voting was Baltimore first baseman Eddie Murray (with 13 second place votes), followed by the Angel's Doug DeCinces and K.C.'s Hal McRae.

Yount missed the batting title by a single point to the Royals' Willie Wilson (.332 to .331). The Brewers' brilliant all-around shortstop led the majors in total hits with 210, in total bases with 367 and in slugging percentage at .578. He also led the league's shortstops in assists with 489.

In addition to the BBWAA Most Valuable Player, Yount was selected by the Sporting News as its American League Player of the Year.

MC RAE WINS UNPRECEDENTED THIRD A.L. DESIGNATED HITTER AWARD

The tenth annual Official Designated Hitter Award went to Hal McRae of the Kansas City Royals for an unprecedented third time in 1982. A previous winner in 1976 and 1980, the K.C. veteran led both major leagues with 133 runs batted in last season while hitting .310 with a league-leading 46 doubles (tied with Robin Yount) and 27 home runs. His slugging percentage was .545 and on-base percentage was .372 as a designated hitter.

The award is co-sponsored each year by the American League and The Union Leader of Manchester, NH. Presentation of the award was made at the Union Leader's annual Baseball Dinner last January. Voting for the award is conducted among writers, broadcasters and P.R. men for each American League team.

As a result of McRae's performance, the Royals had the best season overall record in DHing with a .313 average followed by runner-up Boston at .293 and Chicago at .291. McRae also led DHs in total bases with 332, in hits—189, triples—8. The Indians' Andre Thornton was tops in homers with 31 and was second in RBIs with 109, and led in walks with 102. Thornton also was first in on-base percentage at .392.

EARLY A.L. MVP WINNERS

The Baseball Writers Association of America officially balloted and named the Most Valuable Player in each major league since 1931. The earlier awards were known as the Chalmers (automobile) Award (1911-14) and then the league made the award from 1922 through 1928. Under league rules, no player could repeat as awinner. The early winners are listed below:

CHALMERS AWARD AMERICAN LEAGUE

1911 Ty Cobb, Detroit
1912 Tris Speaker, Boston
1913 Walter Johnson, Washington
1914 Eddie Collins, Philadelphia

AMERICAN LEAGUE AWARD

1924 Walter Johnson, Washington
1925 Roger Peckinpaugh, Washington

JACKSON, YASTRZEMSKI LEADING ACTIVE HOME RUN HITTERS

VUCKOVICH WINS CY YOUNG AWARD, EDGING PALMER, QUISENBERRY

"To the victor"...and thus Milwaukee's Pete Vuckovich, with 14 first place votes, won the 1982 American League Cy Young Award as the league's top pitcher, according to a vote of the National Baseball Writers Association. Jim Palmer, a previous three-time winner of the prestigious award, came in second with four first place votes and 12 second place nominations. Dan Quisenberry of Kansas City was third and Toronto's Dave Stieb was fourth. No pitcher was named on all 28 ballots (two votes in each American League city).

The mustachioed Milwaukee hurler is the first right-handed starting pitcher to win the Cy Young in the A.L. since Palmer did it for a third time in 1976. He is the second consecutive Brewer winner of the award, Rollie Fingers taking the honor a year earlier.

Vuckovich was fourth in the voting in 1981, but got no first place votes that year.

ROD CAREW

ROD CAREW TOPS ALL ACTIVE HITTERS AT .331; EIGHT IN LEAGUE ARE BATTING OVER .300

Rod Carew, who hit .319 in 1982 - his 14th consecutive season over the coveted .300 level, continues to lead all active major league players with a lifetime average of .331. All told there are eight current American Leaguers who are hitting .300 or better (based on 1,000 or more major league at bats).

George Brett of Kansas City is second among the American League's active players at .316. Teammate Willie Wilson of the Royals is next at .312, after leading the A.L. in 1982 with a .332 mark.

Cecil Cooper of Milwaukee follows at .308. Completing the list of eight are Jim Rice of Boston at .305, Ken Griffey of the Yankees at .304, Fred Lynn of California at .301 and Cleveland's Bake McBride at an even .300.

Dan Quisenberry

QUISENBERRY WINS SECOND ROLAIDS RELIEF MAN AWARD WITH 81 POINTS

Kansas City bullpen ace Dan Quisenberry won his second Rolaids Relief Man Award in three years when his nine wins, 35 saves and seven losses gave him a league leading 81 points. He easily beat out Seattle's Bill Caudill with 67 points.

The 1981 champion, Rollie Fingers, was out of action the last four weeks of the season to eliminate whatever chance he had of winning a record fifth Rolaids Relief Award (he had won three in the National League prior to joining the Milwaukee Brewers in 1981).

		W	L	S	Pts.
1.	Dan Quisenberry, Kansas City	9	7	35	81
2.	Bill Caudill, Seattle	12	9	26	67
3.	Rich Gossage, New York	4	5	30	63
4.	Rollie Fingers, Milwaukee	5	6	23	62
5.	Dan Spillner, Cleveland	12	10	21	56
6.	Salome Barojas, Chicago	6	6	21	48
7.	Mark Clear, Boston	14	9	14	47
8.	Bob Stanley, Boston	12	7	14	45
9.	Tippy Martinez, Baltimore	8	8	16	40
10.	Ron Davis, Minnesota	3	9	22	41

(Two points are credited for each relief win or save, one point subtracted for each relief loss.)

BOB BOONE LEADS ANGELS TO MAJORS' ERASER RATE AWARD

By easily leading the majors in percentage of opponents caught stealing, Bob Boone and the California Angeles won the A.L. Eraser Rate Award for 1982. Angel Catchers, primarily Boone, threw cut 77 of 143 would-be thieves for a major league leading .538 average.

AMERICAN LEAGUE DRAWS OVER 23 MILLION SETS ALL-TIME SPORTS LEAGUE RECORD!

The California Angels, Kansas City Royals and New York Yankees drew over two million fans apiece and ten other American League teams (Baltimore, Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Milwaukee, Oakland, Seattle, Texas and Toronto) surpassed the one million mark, as the A.L. set a new league, Major League and sports league attendance record of 23,080,449 in 1982. The new season mark broke the circuit's own 1979 record total of 22,371,979.

The West Division champion Angels set an American League season home attendance record of 2,807,360, and the pennant-winning Milwaukee Brewers and Oakland Athletics also set new club marks for season attendance.

Every A.L. team bettered the one-million mark on the road in '82; but the Yankees were first in the league, drawing 2,206,859 away from home—marking the 37th consecutive year the Yankees have topped the one-million milestone on the road.

Golden Anniversary All-Star Game Set for Chicago July 6th; Annual Meetings Scheduled in Nashville

Exactly 50 years ago on July 6th, 1933, the first Baseball All-Star game was played at Comiskey Park in Chicago, with the American League winning, 4-2, on the strength of Babe Ruth's third inning two-run home run. On Wednesday, July 6th, 1983, the American League will host the National League at Comiskey Park in the 54th All-Star Classic (two games were played in each of four seasons - 1959-62). All living players from that first game will be invited back this summer, plus a host of other All-Stars in a gigantic All-Star celebration being planned by the host Chicago White Sox.

The annual summer business meetings of the major leagues is scheduled for August 4 & 5 in Boston.

Baseball's Annual Winter Meetings will be held in Nashville, Tenn., from Dec., 5 to 9, 1983.

NEW BABE RUTH STAMP MARKS 50TH ALL-STAR ANNIVERSARY

The U.S. Postal Service paid tribute to the 50th Anniversary All-Star Game in Chicago July 6th by issuing a Babe Ruth Commemorative stamp on the occasion of "the Babe's 88th birthday, Feb. 6th.

Ruth was the star of the first All-Star contest at Comiskey Park in Chicago (the site of this year's classic on the same date) when he hit a two-run homer for the 4-2 American League victory.

"TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME" IS ON ALL-TIME HIT SONG LIST

"Take Me Out To The Ball Game", a staple of baseball games for a long time, was composed by Albert Von Tilzer of Indianapolis in 1907. Baseball's unofficial anthem remains on the ASCAP all-time list of 100 top song hits.

Cronin named 1983 American League Honorary Captain

Joe Cronin, the starting All-Star shoftstop in the first All-Star Game 50 years ago, and currently Chairman of the Board of the American League, has been named Honorary Captain of the '83 team. The former great shortstop, now a member of Baseball's "Hall of Fame", also served as team manager at Washington and Boston and as general manager of the Red Sox.

IN HIS 14½ SEASONS as manager of the Baltimore Orioles, Earl Weaver compiled a record of 1,354 wins against only 919 losses for a .596 percentage, third best all-time (for managers with five or more full seasons). His Oriole teams won 100 or more games five times and 90 or more 12 times. In his 15 seasons, Earl's O's were first or second 13 times. His teams finished over .500 for the last 25 consecutive seasons, including minor league service. He retired at the end of the 1982 season and will serve as a special assignment scout and consultant for the next two years with the Orioles. BOB BROWN, veteran public relations director of the Baltimore Orioles, was elected winner of the Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations Excellence, by his peers after the 1982 season. Presentation of the trophy was made at the PR meetings in Honolulu last December.

Brooks Robinson was elected to Baseball's "Hall of Fame" in his first year of eligibility, only the seventh player to perform exclusively in the American League to be so honored. He performed only for the Baltimore Orioles and he played third base with distinction for 23 years, the longest continuous stint ever. And he was probably the best ever at the hot corner.

Who will ever forget his 1970 performance at third base in the World Series against the Cincinnati Reds? His incredible play in the field "vaulted Robinson from mere greatness to immortality" wrote Peter Pascarelli in the Philadelphia Inquirer (he covered the Orioles for the Baltimore News American for many years).

Wrote Pascarelli after hearing of Robinson's election:

"Given baseball's brave new world of constantly shifting loyalties and rapidly inflating egos, we will likely never again see the likes of Brooks Robinson. He spent his entire 23-year career with the same team, and rarely has there been a better match than Robinson and the Baltimore Orioles. Even today, five years removed from his last game, Robinson remains the symbol of the Orioles. His election yesterday to the Hall of Fame already has triggered a love-in along the Chesapeake...

"...Brooks Robinson is unique...He represented a rare meshing of city and personality, the interaction between a sometimes-forgotten town tucked amid the flashier world of Washington, Philadelphia and New York and an unspoiled star player who led the city into the world's spotlight and never was changed by the glitter...

"...Robinson was revered with an affection that to this day transcends mere fan support...He is the Orioles, he is baseball and professional sports in Baltimore," wrote Pasacarelli in a warm tribute typical of many that appeared after Brooks' election had been announced.

Robinson closed his career by setting major league records for third basemen for games played (2,870), most putouts (2,697), most assists (6,205), most total chances (8,902), most double plays (618), highest lifetime fielding average (.971) and most years leading fielders (11). Additionally, he hit .350 lifetime with men in scoring position. Robbie batted .267 for his career with 2,848 hits, 1,357 RBIs, and 268 home runs.

ORIOLES HOST CHAMPION CARDINALS IN 1983 "HALL OF FAME" GAME AUG. 1

With Brooks Robinson gaining Hall of Fame election in his first year of eligibility, the Baltimore Orioles will be the American League representative in the 1983 exhibition game at Cooperstown, N.Y. The Orioles will be the home team and will face the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals at Doubleday Field on Monday afternoon, August 1st.

The game will conclude the Hall of Fame weekend celebration honoring new inductees Robinson and Juan Marichal (and any others who are selected by the Veterans Committee during the spring). The induction ceremonies will be held on Sunday afternoon, July 31st.

WILSON FIRST SWITCH-HITTER SINCE MANTLE TO WIN A.L. BATTING TITLE

It has been 26 years since Mickey Mantle of the Yankees won the triple crown and thus the American League batting championship. When Willie Wilson of the Kansas City Royals took the crown in 1982, it marked the first time a switch-hitter had captured the A.L. batting title since Mantle in 1956.

JOE RUDI LEADER IN GRAND SLAM HOME RUNS

Oakland's poplar veteran designated hitter-outfielder-first baseman Joe Rudi leads all active players in the majors in grand slam home runs with 12. Dave Kingman of the Mets is second with 11 and Jeff Burroughs of Oakland is right behind with 10. All-time grand slam leader, of course, was Lou Gehrig of the Yankees who hit 23.

GAYLORD PERRY,THE Seattle Mariners remarkable veteran right-hander who will turn 45 next Sept. 15th, has won more games than any active hurler entering 1983—307. He is third in strikeouts behind Walter Johnson (3,508) and Nolan Ryan (3,494) with 3,452. He has more innings pitched (5,166) than any active pitcher and he has fanned 100 or more batters—a record-equaling 18 years.

BRICKHOUSE WINS 1983 FRICK AWARD; TO BE HONORED AT COOPERSTOWN

Veteran television and radio announcer Jack Brickhouse, long associated with Chicago baseball broadcasting (especially with the Cubs in recent years) has been named the 1983 winner of the Ford C. Frick Award, given annually since 1978 to members of the broadcasting profession who have made major contributions to the game.

The award presentation will be made at the Hall of Fame induction ceremonies on Sunday, July 31st in Cooperstown, N.Y. Previous winners were Mel Allen and Red Barber in 1978, Bob Elson in 1979, Russ Hodges - 1980, Ernie Harwell - 1981 and Vince Scully in 1982.

SEVEN JOHNSONS ON 1983 AMERICAN LEAGUE SPRING ROSTERS; 6 BROWNS

The Johnsons beat out the Browns as the most common name to appear on 1983 American League spring rosters. Tied for second place, also at six, was Jones . . . and that's no suprise. But the next most common name is not Smith . . . It's Castillo - and there are five of them. And there are four Martinez names on the rosters.

CARL YASTRZEMSKI STARTS 23RD SEASON WITH RED SOX; NEARS LEADERSHIP IN MANY CATEGORIES

Carl Yastrzemski, Boston's all-time great outfielder-first baseman, needs only 110 more games to have played in more contests than any player in baseball history. Hank Aaron of the Braves completed his career with 3,298 games. Yaz, going into 1983, has 3,189.

Carl is high on many other "all-time" lists as he enters his 23rd consecutive season with the Red Sox. He played in 131 games last year. Pete Rose of the Phillies is only 90 games behind Yaz.

On the all-time lists, Yastrzemski enters his 1983 campaign tied for 6th place in years of service, second in games played, third in at bats, 13th in runs scored, seventh in hits, eighth in doubles, seventeenth in home runs, twelfth in runs batted in (but tops among active players).

With two pennant winners in his 22 years (1967 and 1975), Carl's greatest ambition is to play for one more Red Sox championship team. He hit .352 in the 14 games he played in those two losing series.

AUTRY'S NO. 26 RETIRED

Gene Autry, owner of the Western Division champion California Angels, has had his uniform number retired. You never knew he had a uniform? The players gave him No. 26 —as the 26th man on the team—and that number has been retired.

BASEBALL—NATIONAL AMATEUR MONTH IN MAY—DEMONSTRATION SPORT AT 1984 OLYMPIC GAMES

Amateur baseball has two important new events on its growing calendar—one in 1983 and another in 1984.

The first National Amateur Baseball Month, a salute to over 19 million amateur baseball players in the United States, will be held in May of this year, a time when high school and college teams are at the height of their seasons and youth baseball is under way.

Then in 1984 baseball will have its largest role ever in the Olympics. At least four countries will participate on a demonstration sport basis at Los Angeles' Dodger Stadium.

The governing body for amateur baseball is the United States Baseball Federation. More information may be obtained from Executive Director Dick Case or Wanda Rutledge at 4 Gregory Drive, Hamilton Square, New Jersey (609-586-2381).
